Margo is the brainchild who created the first Fiesta event on the Westside of San Antonio, we all know as "Piñata's in the Barrio". Her early intentions were to create a Fiesta event for Senior Citizens and Youth at Risk. Due to the partnership with the San Antonio Fiesta Commission, this event reached to all walks of the community. Margo's specific efforts to enhance Fiesta have been many. One in particular has been to the creation of her own royalty, which featured a Senior Citizen King and Queen of the Barrio and their Court.

Margo and her royalty have made it their duty to add color to any event they are asked to participate in. Margo and her Royalty Court were the only Fiesta group that attended the Kathie Lee Gifford and Hoda Koth "Today Show" at the Arenson River Theater where her Senior Citizen King was interviewed live that morning representing San Antonio and our Fiesta name.

In 2012 she Margo became a community Liaison for People Magazine En Espanol the magazine held large musical events during the Labor Day holiday. Margo helped the Magazine become familiar with the San Antonio community. She held this post until 2014. In addition, as Ambassador at large for the San Antonio Fiesta Commission Margo has included the most precious of our community to include children and senior citizens with, many visit to Elementary schools, Assisted Living Centers and Adult Day Care Centers.

Margo's effort to promote Fiesta does not stop with Royalty. Margo is also brainchild of the first Fiesta Piñata Scepter. This colorful novelty has been her trademark as well as her wearing of a Mexican Sombrero at all Fiesta functions. She has presented numerous scepters to various Fiesta organizations and specific individuals. Margo credits the Fiesta Commission for having the insight of recognizing the novelty feature and the sale of Fiesta Scepters as fundraising items at the Fiesta Store. Margo has also made it a rule to gift Fiesta Piñata's Scepters to our visiting dignitaries as a positive and long lasting memory of San Antonio and Fiesta. Her true objective with this novelty item is to raise money her organizations scholarship fund.

Margo has made numerous TV appearances with her court and scepters in hand. She has volunteered her time to promote her organization, Fiesta and how PMO's are a part of this great celebration better known as Fiesta. The following are just a few of the appearances she has made: Great Day S.A., San Antonio Living, Amparo Ortiz Show Univision, KXTN, KONO, KEDA, KROM, TMV Café and Voice City.

Margo has volunteered her time as a member and key volunteer to a number of organizations, to name a few: The Westside YMCA, Jeannie's Kidz, Veterans Day Parade, Alamo College GED Group, Casa De Confianza, Fiesta San Antonio Commission and People Magazine En Espanol who she encouraged to become a part of the Fiesta Commission.

In conclusion, Margo is passionate about her beautiful city and everything that has to do with Fiesta. Margo has been active in Fiesta for over 20 years. Her leadership as President of AUEDA has prompted her to instill Fiesta Goodwill at all Fiesta Functions by introducing local entertainers and diverse artist to Fiesta week. She makes her goal to add color and enhance the Fiesta Brand and what it stands for. Her dedication to Fiesta and fellow PMO's are ongoing year to year. Her Royalty, her Piñata Scepter and recent Piñata's in the Barrio and Poster Unveiling are true measures of what Fiesta has been for the Westside and city of San Antonio.

Sincerely,
