Nomination for Marcie Ince

Marcie Ince

30 Imperial Way San Antonio, TX 78248
(210) 492-1137 / marcie@satx.rr.com /FAX 2104928765

Marcie Ince has experience with many community organizations and devotes many, many hours and talents to providing a positive leadership and commitment to better the organizations that she assists with. Her education and work history have benefited and enhanced the many Fiesta Organizations that has provided her time and talents going to exceptional heights to bring those events and activities to a higher level than they would have had if she did not provide her leadership. Each event that she has work with continue to provide a lasting and positive image for the Fiesta and the Citizens of San Antonio

With the Fiesta Commission she has served on the Executive Board beginning in 2007 through 2009; 2010 – 12 and 2013-16 serving in leadership positions of Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer and as a Presidential Appointee. She has been selected to serve as an Elected Commissioner to complete the 2017-2018 term of office.

During this same time she served as the San Antonio Conservation Society President from 2007-2009 ensuring preservation and restoration of many historic sites for San Antonio. Even as president of the San Antonio Conservation Society she continues to support as a NIOSA Booth Chairperson from 1989 to the present and as Awards Ceremony vice Co-chair in 2012.

She continues to serve on the San Antonio Parks Foundation Executive board since 2009, the San Antonio Friends of the Parks (President since 2009), member of the Military Civilian Club and as the membership chairperson 2011-12.

Marcie Ince's other highlights and community volunteer and leadership activities include:

HemisFair Park Women's Pavilion Board (2009 – current)
The Int'l San Antonio Folk Art Market – Founder's Circle (2011 – current)
San Antonio Assistance League – Community Assistant (2009 - current)
